Today's Schedule.

Paducah at Cairo.
Jacksonville at Vincennes.
Mattoon at Danville.

Yesterday was dark and gloomy for the Indians both in weather and spirit. They lost a double header to Cairo, the second double header of the series making Cairo's victory over Paducah decisive.

Cairo took four out of the six games.

This morning the Indians left for Cairo and will wind up the season on the road at Mattoon. The fans had some hopes that the Paducah team would win second place, but the article of ball put up by Cairo seemed to outclass the Indians yesterday and little hope is entertained for second place.

If the Indians keep from settling in fourth place it will be a miracle.

Yesterday's games were lost through inability to hit and the visitors' ginger. Miller was wild and walked and hit several in the first game. Later the Hashlingers hit Miller and the Indians never had a show at Johnson's delivery. He was in too good form.

The second game was lost in the same way. Woodring kept hits scat-

NEWS OF KENTUCKY

Vote Separately on Local Option.

Georgetown, Ky., August 22.—

In the local option election last Saturday, Georgetown went wet. Yesterday, in the county court, the petition asking for an election on the same question, and called next month for Scott county, including Georgetown, was refused by Judge J. J. Yates. This was the first decision on this point under the new county unit law, and was expected to be a test case, being watched with much interest by surrounding counties. A large attendance heard much heated arguments by the respective attorneys. One side contended that the vote of any first to fourth class city only counted when held on the same day as the county election, while the wets retorted that with the three-year clause still in force, they could not or need not call for an election on that same date or any other within the period of three years. Judge Yates said: "I have considered this question for several weeks and believe that the cities of the first four grades have a right to determine whether they shall have license or local option. In my judgment, with the three-year clause not repealed, they have the right. The court orders that this election shall be held September 28 in Scott county, to prevail outside the city of Georgetown."

Although appeal was threatened, the petitioners today withdrew their petition.

Graves Democrats.

The Graves county Democratic committee met at the court house with 22 members present and five names were selected and recommended to be sent to Frankfort, from which one name is to be selected to act as one of Graves county's election commissioners. The names selected are as follows: C. W. Wilson, J. D. Watson, Jesse M. Bennett, J. T. Emmerson and J. W. Monroe. The committee called a primary election in Magisterial district Nos. 5, 7 and 8 to name Democratic candidates for constable.

The time set for voting in the primary election was Saturday, Sept. 15, between the hours of 1 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

The entry fee was fixed at $2.50 for each candidate to be in paying the expenses of the election. September 5th is the last day to put up the money and enter the race.

Back to Hoptown.

Hopkinsville, August 22.—Harrison Alexander, the negro who was sentenced to death at Greenville yesterday for assault upon Mrs. Florence Whitehouse, was returned to this city this morning, arriving under escort of company D., which with company G., of Earlinton, guarded the jail and court house during the trial which lasted through Saturday and Monday. The date of the execution was set for September 21.

First Kentucky Goes Home.

The First Kentucky Infantry broke camp at Henderson and entrained for Louisville, after the most enjoyable state encampment ever held. Henderson citizens had only good things to say of the soldiers.

Joseph Rhinock the Nominee.

Covington, Ky., August 22.—Representative Joseph Rhinock was declared the congressional nominee of the Democrats of the Sixth district by the committee here this afternoon. A convention had been called to be held today at Walton, but was called off. J. Lynn Gooch, Rhinock's only opponent, withdrawing from the race.

Bishop McClosky's Reason.

Louisville, August 22.—The Right Rev. William George McClosky, bishop of the diocese of Louisville, last night issued a statement that the late Spalding Coleman was denied funeral services in St. Louis Bertrand church because it was proposed to bury the body in Cave Hill cemetery, contrary to the laws of the church. The Coleman family consider the bishop's action an insult and demand an apology.

In Fayette Jail.

Lexington, August 22.—Under escort of the detachment of state troops, commanded by Col. J. Embury Allen, which protected the prisoner while on trial, Jesse Fitzgerald, the negro convicted of the murder of Mrs. Robert Broughton and sentenced to hang on September 21, was brought to Lexington Tuesday morning and placed in the Fayette county jail for safe-keeping to await execution.

Bridge Company.

The stockholders of the Beattyville and Proctor Bridge company completed organization yesterday by electing officers. Half the capital stock has been subscribed and a contract let for a bridge to be completed by December 1.

She—"Would you really die for me?"

He—"No, dear I would not."

She—"There! I thought you wouldn't, and yet you talk of love."

He—"My dear, my love is of the undying sort."

There is No Good Reason Against Good Insurance

Nor any substitute for it. Wherever failure to live means financial loss, there is call for insurance. Is your life of financial value to another—your family, partners or business? If so, Life Insurance deserves your attention, and deserves it now. Your forethought will be better than their afterthought. When it comes to the best kind of Life Insurance, men do not all think alike. There is no desirable kind that cannot be obtained from THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY. This is the oldest active Life Insurance Company in America, and the largest and staunchest in the world. It is a Mutual Company. It has no stockholders. Its assets belong to its policy-holders. It has paid them dividends continuously for fifty-six years. Taking its history through,

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

has done as well for its policy-holders as any company. It should have done better, as has recently been shown. Under the present management all policy-holders may expect unusually favorable results. This is made reasonable by the facts that it is a strictly Mutual Company, operated under New York laws, which are now the best in the world; that its great volume of business means smaller share of expense on each policy, and that the new methods and economies, which are now a part of its constitution, will save immense sums which must go to the policy-holders, as the only proper place.

Mr. Charles L. Hughes, who became famous by conducting the investigation of the Legislative Committee, and who speaks with authority, has recently said: "We have had great companies exposed to close and unsparring analysis, only to find that their solidity was as the rock of Gibraltar. I would rather take insurance in a New York company compelled to transact business under these restrictions, than in any company not so restricted, and I believe that will be the sentiment of the people of these United States."
